

Let's start teaching young pupils how professionals make their audio-visual works...!

The Golden Clapperboard

National Slovak competition in audio-visual or multimedia production made by pupils and students.

The main organizer of this National competition is the Elementary School of art Jána Albrechta and it is run under the auspices of the The Ministry of Education, Science, Research and Sport of the Slovak Republic.

Pupils and students compete in :

2 main age groups

- from 10 to 14 years
- from 15 to 19 years

11 specific competition categories

- Best cinematography
- Best film editing
- Best director
- Best short feature film
- Best young female lead
- Best young male lead
- Best music video clip
- Best original screenplay
- Best documentary
- Best children TV news report
- Best animated short feature film

The deadline for registration of the works is usually at the end of January and the Award Ceremony is held annually at the end of March.

SPECIAL AWARDS:

The special award for the best teacher, granted by the Slovak Methodological and pedagogical centre

The GRAND PRIX for the best audio-visual work, granted by Minister of Education, Science, Research and Sport of the Slovak Republic

For more information contact:

Metodicko-pedagogické centrum Ševčenkova 11 850 05 Bratislava, Slovakia, EU sekretariat.gr@mpc-edu.sk http://www.mpc-edu.sk +421 2 48 209 411	Základná umelecká škola Jána Albrechta Topoľčianska 15 851 01 Bratislava, Slovakia, EU zusjalbrechta@gmail.com skola@jalbrechta.eu http://www.zusjanaalbrechta.eu/ +421 2 63 835 035
---	--

PREISVERLEIHUNG 2018

Die Moderatorin und ihr junger Co-Moderator begrüßen für das Projekt MOKKA Dr. Darina-Vybohova vom Methodisch-Pädagogischen Centrum in Bratislava (Partner SK) und Dr. Ulrike Kurth vom Westfälischen Forum für Kultur und Bildung in Bielefeld (Koordinator).

Die verschiedenen nominierten Teilnehmer werden begrüßt und ...

... der Gewinner wird ausgezeichnet.